Hamburgh, April 12. N. S.

THE Emperor has very earneſtly invited the Elector of Treves to be preſent at his Coronation at Presburg, in Hungary, which is deferr'd till the next Month, becauſe the Deputies of Tranſylvania, who are to aſſiſt at that Ceremony, will be oblig'd to remain upon the Frontiers for three Weeks, becauſe the Plague has been in their Country, and there will not be ſufficient Forage about Presbourg before that time, for the numerous Retinue that will attend his Imperial Majeſty. The five young Princes of Bavaria have obtain'd the Emperor's leave to reſide at Gratz, where his Majeſty has appointed them Governors, and Mony for their Expences according to their Quality. We have Advice from Petersbourg, that his Czariſh Majeſty will ſet out from thence to Pomerania after Eaſter; and that Prince Menzikoff will be at Koningsbourg, about the Fifth of this Inſtant, from whence he is to proceed to Coldinguen, to Confer with the King of Denmark, concerning the Operations of the approaching Campaign in the North. The Suedes are apprehenſive the Danes will make their greateſt Efforts on the ſide of Norway, and that they will endeavour at a Deſcent in the Dutchy of Bremen. The Reports continue, that the King of Sueden remains ſtill at Bender, and the Palatine of Kiovia at Jaſſi.

Hamburgh, April 19. N. S. The Diet of Warſaw began its Seſſions upon the Fifth of this Month, and after long Debates, the Count Denhoff, who is intirely in the Intereſt of King Auguſtus, was elected Marſhal of the Confederacy, from which beginning a good Iſſue is expected in their following Conſultations. The firſt Propoſal which the Senators made to his Poliſh Majeſty, was to deſire him to fix the Term of two Months for the departure of the Muſcovite Forces out of that Kingdom. His Majeſty has given Orders for the Regiment of his Guards, and three other Regiments of Foot to March into Pomerania with a Train of Artillery, conſiſting of twelve Pieces of Cannon. Prince Menzikoff is already gone from Elbing, in his Paſſage for Pomerania, but that he will ſtay ſome time at Berlin, to make ſome Propoſals from the Czar his Maſter to his Pruſſian Majeſty. The Sueditſh Veſſels upon the Elbe, have given Chaſe to ſome Danes, and their mutual Hoſtilities ſtill continue. There was a ſtrong Report in this City a few Days ago, that an Action had happened between the Daniſh Troops and the Suedes in Pomerania, but though two conſiderable Parties approach'd very near one another, yet they parted without any Engagement.

Bruſſels, April 21. N. S. The Engliſh Troops which were part of this Garriſon, march'd hence on the Fourteenth Inſtant, to the general Rendezvous of the Army. General Wrangel has taken the Command of the Forces remaining here, in the room of the General Baron de Heyden, who commands the Dutch Troops that were Quarter'd here laſt Winter. Two Spaniſh Regiments, and two Squadrons of Dragoons are expected here, which will compleat this Garriſon ſo far, as that we ſhall have no occaſion to fear the Inſults of the Enemy during the approaching Campaign. We have Advice from Namur, that the French have evacuated the Forts and Caſtles of Namur, and that the Bavarian Forces have taken Poſſeſſion of them. Nothing has paſs'd between the two Armies on the Frontiers of Artois. The Deſigns that have been form'd for driving the Enemy from the Senſette have been rendred impracticable, becauſe our Forces cannot march towards them, by reaſon of the continuance of the ill Weather.

Utrecht, April 22. N. S. Yeſterday a Conference was held here, as uſual, between as many of the Miniſters of the Allies as are at preſent reſiding here: They who went to the Hague are expected back this Evening, in order to aſſiſt at the General Conference to Morrow, although it is not yet certainly known, whether that will produce any thing more material than ſome of the preceeding Ones have lately done. Monſieur Palmquiſt, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sueden to the States-General, who has likewiſe the Character of Plenipotentiary for the Congreſs of Peace from the Circle of the Upper Rhine, is come from the Hague, and after making a ſhort ſtay, will return thither, having no other Buſineſs at preſent, but the providing for his future Accommodation here. The Miniſters of Parma, Modena, and of the Republick of Genoa, are all arriv'd at this Place. No General Conference was held upon the Twentieth, becauſe it was appointed for a Solemn Faſt, which was kept throughout all the Provinces.

Hague, April 20. N. S. Two Days ago a Deputation from the Aſſembly of the States-General, went to the Houſe of the Earl of Strafford; and having had a Conference with his Excellency, that laſted about half an Hour, return'd to give an account of the reſult of it to the Aſſembly. Prince Eugene of Savoy will ſet out to Morrow, to put himſelf at the Head of the Army in Flanders; he came hither Yeſterday in the Morning, together with Count Sinzendorff, and in the Evening had a Conference with the Earl of Strafford and the Deputies of the States-General, and the Council of State, which laſted two Hours. All the Plenipotentiaries of the Allies, who came hither from Utrecht, are returning thither, to be preſent at the General Conference that is to be held to Morrow.

Plymouth, April 10. Yeſterday ſail'd Her Majeſty's Ship the Monk with five Merchant Ships for Ireland. This Day came in Her Majeſty's Ship the Speedwell from the Weſtward. Arriv'd the Abraham and Iſaac of and for London, with Wine from Maderas.

Cowes, April 14. This Day paſs'd through this Road to the Weſtward, the Arundell, Napto, Churchill
